

Creative Solutions for Training Leaders

Andrew Inglis is Managing Director of

The CTT Group Pty. Ltd and Creative Training Techniques Pty Ltd

an organization whose Mission is

"Freeing the Prisoners of Boring, Unproductive Presentations and Training".

Andrew has personally trained and coached more than 3,000 professional communicators within Australasia and internationally over the past 15 years through the internationally acclaimed Creative Training Techniques Seminar, High Impact Presenting Workshop and individual coaching sessions.

His experience as a learning and development professional combined with an academic background in Sociology, post graduate studies in Acting and more than ten years as a professional actor, enables Andrew to bring unique qualities to the process of helping others to communicate more dynamically and effectively.